

is for Art Show full of beautiful and sexy things (including Shoshanna)

is for Beach, right outside the door is for Consuite, where Misti and her team take care of us is for Dealers Room, where Ken guards the goodies

is for Escapade, in all its slasy goodness is for Fandom, and Friends, and everything that follows...

Welcome to Escapade

Thanks for coming. We really mean that. We spend way too much time trying to find the best way to entertain 100+ fans for three days. If you didn't show up, and contribute your brilliant conversation and personality, that would be a wasted effort.

We hope that you'll have a fantastic weekend, meet new friends and catch up with old ones, hang out in the con suite, take a walk on the beach, and pick up some goodies from the dealers room, the art show, and the slash swap meet.

Please say thank you (as we do) to any of the following who you meet here at the convention, or encounter online: Vidders • Ken • Scholarship donors • Panel moderators • Dail (zine library, Escapade's email hostess) • Shoshanna & staff (art show) • Volunteers • Ellie (website) • Artists • Misti (consuite hostess, general organization) • Geniuses • Jo, Killa, and a cast of thousands (songvid show).

What's New:

- Escapade Genius Lounge, where you can get personalized training on a variety cool toys
- Flash Panel Survey, on paper or online, we invite you to share your thoughts with us about the panels while you're in them or as you're leaving, so you don't forget and we know.
- Program Book Online, in case you lose this paper copy, or because you're just that cool, you can access this document here: escapadecon.net/program/
- Schedule Online, at escapadecon.net/schedule/. Check for up-to-the-minute DIY panels, or plan your dinner outing
- Vid/dance space during Friday party

Tried and True:

- Panels (50+ hours)
- Art Show & Auction
- Dealers Room
- Slash Swap Meet
- Vid Show (main "quiet" viewing room and raucous annex)
- Beach Walks
- Games (the details are new & [we hope] fun, see below...)

Why You Should Read This Program Book

1. We made you pretty covers.
2. Hotel layout and room/schedule information abounds.
3. It's where we get to say something personal to all of our attendees, and we like you to listen. 😊

Why You Shouldn't Read This Program Book

1. You show a marked lack of interest for organization and the efforts we made to spell check. Alternately, you don't like games.
2. You already downloaded the PDF to your phone.

Stuff that Happens at Escapade

Friday Night Party where we'll have music, food, fun and games, and both the selling and drawing of some raffle tickets. We also extended the party into the next room, for folks who want to watch vids and/or dance.

Outing to Aphrodite's (Bras, Videos & Toys).

Saturday Night "New or Nearly New" Vid Show features almost two hours of new or nearly new songvids.

The Escapade Genius Lounge will have a schedule posted on each function room door as a reminder so drop in to the Santa Rosa room and teach/learn/ pimp/laugh/ play.

The Raffle. Drawings for various prizes will occur throughout the weekend, but for the free registration to Escapade 24 you need to be present to win. Drawings to be held:

- Friday at the Party (Drink! Nosh! Dance! Win!)
- Sunday at breakfast (Devour! Laugh! Don't Eat Your Ticket! Win!)

All attendees will receive one raffle ticket in their registration packet. You can get additional tickets by:

1. Donating $1 to the Escapade Charity (Ventura Food Bank)
2. Winning some of the highly complex games described herein.

Stuff that Happens at Escapade

The Games. We have made up some games that win you an extra raffle ticket.

Game 1: The "Who am I?" Game. (Hint: "your" name will be on your back at the party. Guess in 6 (or fewer) yes/no questions, win a raffle ticket.)

Game 2: The "How Did We Get Together?" Game. Everyone has been randomly assigned a secret identity (on your badge). Identify yours, and throughout the weekend, see how—or if—they might hook up with whomever is on anybody else's badge. Tell us a story, get a raffle ticket.

Game 3: The "Fortune Cookie" Game. There will be fortune cookies. In them will be fortunes—six, to be exact. Two sets of three create two different, memorable quotes. Put them together and bring them to someone with raffle tickets at the party or in the consuite, and each member of your group who is present will get a free raffle ticket.

The Dead Dog Party.

It's the last chance to say hello and goodbye, see who's still around, share your food leftovers, eat the last of our snacks, hug Ken, and enjoy the last hours of public visiting that mark the wind-down of the con. Food and drink typically abounds.

Join us in the consuite, because we don't want to say goodbye either.

The Beach to Walk On. A lovely promenade, perfect for walking and viewing the ocean, runs right outside the hotel doors. Let's meet for a beach walk on Saturday and Sunday at 8 a.m. in front of San Miguel B, and we'll leave for the walk at 8:05. Wear a jacket and comfortable (or no) shoes; the promenade is fully disabled-accessible, but be warned that the pier is old and wooden.

FYI: low tides this weekend are 2:07 p.m. Friday, 2:32 p.m. Saturday, and 2:58 p.m. Sunday. The moon will be almost full Sunday.

Media Fandom Oral History Project will once again be at Escapade and they'd love to sit down with fans to chat and record their memories.

Come share your unique experience of media fandom, the shows that drew you to fandom, the friendships you've made, the stories, vids, or art that you've created, and talk how fandom has impacted your life. We are offering one-hour recorded interviews (by phone or Skype, audio only) to help preserve our fannish history. Interviews will be stored in the Fanzine Archives. A signup sheet will be at Kathy Resch's table (dealer's room) or you can contact us at: oralhistoryfandom@gmail.com For more info about the project: <http://tinyurl.com/MediaOralHistory>

Orienting Yourself to the Hotel

Other Events/Locations:

- Con Suite: Room 1108
- Sunday Breakfast, Art & Charity Auction: Bayview
- Bra Shop Visit: Friday 6 PM, meet in front of San Miguel A
- Gallery Crawl: Sat 3 pm, San Miguel A
- Zine Library Tour: Sat 5 pm, Con Suite

The hotel continues to be good to Escapade, with kind staff, sun, and ocean (and surfer) views. Function space is on the ground floor, and the Sunday breakfast buffet is in the hotel's BAY VIEW room, top floor. The art and charity auction starts in BAY VIEW just as breakfast begins to wrap up.

You probably passed the hotel bar on your way to registration; feel free to bring drinks into most function space (not the art show or dealer room, though!). The patio area outside the bar also has comfortable chairs, with braziers and space heaters to ward off the cool California ocean breeze.

Drop into SANTA ROSA to peruse the Slash Swap Meet, relax at small cocktail tables, find geniuses (and games), and visit with other fans.

Stop by the dealer's room (SAN MIGUEL A) and visit with Ken Dase, who has been our dealer's room onsite staff member for over 10 years. The Art Show is also Ken-adjacent in San Miguel A.

SAN MIGUEL B is the main convention space: large panels, vid shows, and the Friday night party are all here.

Orienting Yourself to the Hotel

SANTA CRUZ houses mostly fandom-specific panels, and across the marble-floored hall you'll find tech/alternate programming, and the vid show annex in the BUENAVENTURA room.

The CONVENTION SUITE continues to be located on the 11th floor, and its entrance is room 1108. In the consuite you'll find:

- Escapade's Local Guide Map
- other attendees
- raffle tickets for game-trade-in or purchase
- snacks and the meta/discussion room, for exciting your brain
- games and the fanzine library ("room 3")
- a TV/DVD set up for watching stuff with your friends ("room 3")
- all the crunchy, chocolaty goodness that is Escapade

Misti is your consuite hostess, and will be until the end of time. Your convention fee stocks the con suite with all kinds of food and drink at the beginning of the weekend, and your generosity keeps it coming.

Remembering Sandy Herrold

Sandy has always been such an intimate part of both our lives and our convention, and she just won't stop giving.

In the Slash Swap Meet, there are two piles of stuff and two jars: one for general contributions and one for contributions to the Sandy memorial scholarship, which helps to subsidize a new vidder (to the con).

Sandy was Escapade's unofficial hostess who made everybody laugh and think and ponder and blush; who brought vids and love of our community with her, every time she attended and every panel she moderated.

We miss her and all of the friends we have had and lost over the years.

List of Attending Members

Friday

10:00 am

Buenaventura      Teen Wolf: All the Feels! lovesrain44, Sharon (Amalthia)

Teen Wolf! All the Feels! All the Pairings! Come and talk about the show and why Season 2 was so effective in bringing on the emo! Bring story recs! Sourwolves welcome!

10:30 am

San Miguel B      Good morning, sunshine!

Can't wait to get the party started? We've got coffee and snacks to set the mood.

11:00 am

San Miguel B      Welcome to Escapade Jennifer aka Megan Kent, Charlotte C. Hill

Start off the convention by greeting all your friends, and casting your votes for the wildcard panel (What do we want to talk about now...) and the flashback to Escapades past panel (Wayback Machine).

1:00 pm

San Miguel B      Making Love Out Of Nothing At All Aral, sinead, M'lyn

Two recent major fandoms—Inception and Teen Wolf—grew up around secondary character slash pairings. What are the elements that lead fandom to ignore main characters in favor of sidekicks? Come talk about the Other Guy pairings in slash fandoms past, present and future—what makes them appealing, and whether this focus on rarepairs is a fad or a trend on the rise. (So to speak.)

Santa Cruz      Leverage: Let's Go Steal a Panel Raine Wynd

Five years of Leverage has come to an end, but what happens next? Brainstorm ideas for stories, rec some existing faves, and talk about the show that was, and will forever be, about five unique people and one amazing premise.

Buenaventura      Calibre Fanfiction Plugins and Custom Columns
Sharon (Amalthia)

Learn how to use the more advanced functions in Calibre to set up custom columns and download fiction directly from multiple fan fiction archives into your Calibre Library, this is the panel for you. Bring your laptop! I'll help you set up your Calibre and share my favorite plugins.

Friday

2:00 pm

San Miguel B      Robot Love Naked Bee, Basingstoke

Let's talk about our love for artificial people: Data, David-8, GLaDOS, Hal, Marvin the Paranoid Android, the Terminators, and all their metal-hearted brethren. Where do robot-like characters like Spock, Parker, Abed, or Sidney Crosby fit into all this? What is it about them that makes them so lovable?

Santa Cruz      Haven: Destiny, Identity, and the OT3 Killa, kerithwyn ('Rith)

Season three asked a lot of hard questions, and pushed Audrey, Nathan, and Duke to face them head-on. It also gave us a whole lot more to chew on when it comes to the mythology and the history of Haven. But what about the future? Where will our heroes go from here? This panel will attempt to unravel season three, and speculate about season four.

Buenaventura      Mac Vidders Roundtable Nate Y

What's the best way to vid on a Mac? Our vidding options have changed a lot in the last few years, and it's been a while since we had a roundtable to discuss and compare our tips, tricks, and processes. This panel is for all of the above.

3:00 pm

San Miguel B      How Fan Fiction Changed Your Life Denise Raymond, lovesrain44

Let's talk about life-changing stories. A story that turned you around, spun your head, made you look at things differently to the point where you could not stop thinking or talking about it. Where you wanted to marry not only the story but the person who wrote it. Wanted to talk to the writer about it until you understood why and how it changed you.

Santa Cruz      Avengers : Monsters, Magic, and Nothing We Were Ever Trained For Aral, sinead

Avengers—gods, monsters, super soldiers, humans, and where does Nick Fury fit in, anyway? Let's talk about what it means to be metahuman, what it means to be human (and guess what category Coulson will belong in when he comes back), and how that impacts the characters, their relationships, and the fic.

Buenaventura      Professionals: They got together how!!! Kris (krisserci5)

Match made by Cowley? They got drunk & fooled around? Near-death experience led to a declaration of true love? Near-marriage jealousy reveals new feelings? What haven't we thought of? Come ready to convince us of your point of view, and bring story recs to share.

Friday

4:00 pm

San Miguel B      The Art of the Pimp Vid Franzeska Dickson

What makes a pimp vid so addictive one hit will get you hooked? Let's talk vids for people outside of your fandom. Plot arc vids, character vids, pairing vids: How do you grab a new audience hard and never let them go? Hey there, little fangirl, the first taste is free!

Santa Cruz      Person of Interest: The One Person (of Interest) Who Connects You to the World Dorinda, Christy

One big theme of the show is the characters finding those connections amidst their isolation—against all hope, and maybe even sometimes against their will. How has the connection between Reese and Finch developed? How does their evolving connection, as well as the lost connections for their individual pasts, power them and the show? And how does each character's search for redemption play into that?

Buenaventura      The What With the Where Now?! Calysta Rose

Every time you turn around fandom is playing on a new site that has new functionality, new ways of interacting and new lingo. Join us in surveying places like tumblr, twitter and getglue.

5:00 pm

San Miguel B      The Bromance Network: USA Network & the Marketing of Homoeroticism Aral, sinead, M'lyn

With numerous shows featuring bromantic male friendships at the center of both the writing and marketing, USA Network has clearly got our number, and many of us are watching. But how do we feel about this? Exploited by the willingness to court our slashy desires without giving us canonical queerness? Happy to have so much slash-candy to devour? We can explore these questions and save a little time for squee about our favorite USA pairings.

Santa Cruz      The Hobbit: An Unexpected Movie Gloriana, Commodore Marie

You probably went into The Hobbit with the LotR films in your mind; if you'd read the book, you had *two* sets of expectations to deal with. Come talk about what you loved and hated about this new addition to the Middle Earth universe, and what you think Jackson has done for slash this time round.

Friday

6:00 pm

Offsite, meet at

San Miguel A      Bra shop visit

Join us at Aphrodite's, a lingerie shop a few blocks away from the hotel that specializes in bras that fit large women, and fit them well! The staff is courteous, friendly and fun to be around, and they can size women at a glance. Never had a comfortable bra because you wear a 42 G? They probably have that on the rack; if not, they'll special-order it for you. In addition to lingerie, they carry sex toys and videos. We can do a tour of the upstairs, find out what sizes and shapes vibrators are made in, and do dramatic readings of the blurbs on the videos.

9:00 pm

San Miguel B      Escapade Party

The social event of the convention. We'll bring the snacks and drinks, you bring the good company.

Santa Cruz      Party Annex/Vids

Bring your own vids, or we'll have a selection. Get your groove on!

Saturday

8:00 am

San Miguel B      Beach Walk

Meet for a lovely morning walk along the promenade.

9:00 am

San Miguel B      No, Don't! Elf (elfwreck)

Noncon: hot or not? From sex pollen to recovery stories, fandom sure does love to throw consent out the window. What makes these stories hot? What makes them offensive? And just where *is* that dubcon line?

Santa Cruz      Sports RPF: Balls! Naked Bee, Jo, Keiko Kirin

Balls, balls everywhere (except when they're pucks). Baseball, basketball, football, hockey, soccer, and other sports RPF fandoms are as popular as ever. Is it the competitive world full of dynamic relationships and rivalries? The drama of good seasons, bad seasons, drafts, strikes, lockouts, and championships? How hot the athletes are? All of the above (and more)? Let's discuss our favorite sports fandoms!

10:00 am

San Miguel B      Wayback Machine

Chosen from the Escapade 2003 program book at the Welcome to Escapade panel, in this hour we'll revisit one topic with a decade's worth of hindsight.

Santa Cruz      Grimm: Mayhem and Magic bren/glacis

What's a Grimm to do? His partner's in the know, the werewolf is his bestie, his boss is making a move on his girlfriend who doesn't know him from Adam, the Witch wants a part of him, and so do the Royals... where does Nick go from here? May be time to switch teams!

Buenaventura      Fan Art Rec Party Naked Bee, Barbana

It's time for some good old fashioned art appreciation! In the absence of a slide projector filled with classic oil paintings, let's have everybody bring a rec for a piece of fanart (any fandom, any style) and if possible an electronic device, print out, or original copy to show it on. We'll go around the room giving everyone a few minutes to talk about your selection and why you chose it (pretty! sexy! intriguing! whatever!).

Saturday

11:00 am

San Miguel B     No More Soundbites, Please: Fannish Consumption in 2013 Raine Wynd

If you can Netflix your show, tweet your reaction to the TPTB, and read fanfic on your phone, how do you keep your enthusiasm about a show going? Does having more tools available to consume your show turn you into more of a fannish butterfly? Also, does the greater public awareness of fandom and fanfic, especially among actors, change your fannish behavior? Inquiring minds want to know!

Santa Cruz     Star Trek: 2009: Beyond K/S... or Not Kathleen (CatalenaMara), Marnie

The next movie may provide more Kirk/Spock subtext than anything since The Wrath of Khan, but let's consider the other possibilities, too. A potentially SPOILERY discussion of the upcoming Star Trek movie. Rampant speculation and discussion of canon and fic ideas encouraged.

Buenaventura     How to find stuff on the AO3 Elf (Elfwreck), Calysta rose

How do you find exactly what and who you are looking for?

Noon

San Miguel B     Romance Outside the Box Killa

White Collar, The Vampire Diaries, Lost Girl, Haven, Merlin, Leverage, True Blood, Fringe, Star Trek: 2009... what do all these fandoms have in common? Nothing a little OT3 wouldn't fix. Fandom knows this, and some of us love the idea. Prime time TV flirts with the idea more openly all the time, and Leverage arguably made theirs canon in the finale. Is polyamory the next frontier? A panel to celebrate the threesome (and moresome) dynamic, and the fandoms that give us such shiny toys to play with.

Santa Cruz     Elementary: If He Can't Have Watson bren/glacis

Maybe he'll take the detective? Gregson and Bell are both hotties... and we know Sherlock loves to experiment! Or he could get wild with Watson, after all... or other possibilities lurking in his murky past? Come discuss!

Buenaventura     The Bestvids of Festivids Nate Y, elipie, Anoel

This year's Festivids featured everything from incest testtube babies to care bear Avengers to a surprisingly large amount of kickass femslash. Let's watch and discuss some favorites from Festivids 2012.

Saturday

1:00 pm

San Miguel B     Resurrecting The Dead Saklani, Delibby, Calysta Rose

With Netflix and Amazon Instant Video streaming many older shows (scifi, fantasy, buddy cop shows, etc), completed shows are getting a new chance at life. Come and share what new-old shows you've fallen in love with!

Santa Cruz     White Collar: Neal's Daddy Issues Julie

White Collar: Let's discuss Neal Caffrey's Daddy Issues — with both James Bennett aka Sam Phelps (his actual absentee father) and Peter Burke (his boss, possible boyfriend and a different kind of daddy).

Buenaventura     So You Want To Be A Vidder Franzeska Dickson

Nobody vidding your OTP anymore? Sad that vidders haven't discovered your new favorite show? Why not vid it yourself? Come learn the very basics, from choosing programs in your price range to dos and don'ts if you're planning to submit to cons.

2:00 pm

San Miguel B     How Do Vids Work? here's luck, renetet

Let's talk about the techniques (not just the feelings!) that make a slash vid work. What makes for a vid that we watch over and over and that sticks with us long-term? We'll talk about these things with reference to a couple of specific vids, see what strategies, commonalities, and differences we can identify, and then open up discussion to additional favorites from the audience.

Santa Cruz     SGA: The Cool Kid and the Geek lovesrain44, Sharon (Amalthia)

Rodney loves John because John is sexy-handsome, lithe-and-cat-like, athletic, brave, and ridiculously pretty. He's also one of the Cool Kids, so, yeah, Rodney might fall hard. But Rodney is not sexy-handsome, lithe-and-cat-like, athletic, brave, nor ridiculously pretty. He's the Geek, so why is John drawn to him? Come argue your point!

Buenaventura     It's still one word after another Denise Raymond, Basingstoke

Writing: we love to do it almost as much as we hate doing it. Of all the art forms, writing is the bad boy that tempts us when we're busy doing something else and goes AWOL just as soon as we sit down. What are your disciplines, tricks and tips for writing when the Muse leaves the room?

Saturday

3:00 pm

San Miguel B OTW – 5 Years And Counting Elf (Elfwreck), Franzeska Dickson

The OTW has reached its five year mark. Let's look back on its accomplishments (and failures) and learn what's next. Find out if there is a project that grabs your interest and how you can help. A free OTW Support sticker to everyone who attends. Batteries sold separately.

Santa Cruz Lost Girl: The Little Faendom That Could kerithwyn ('Rith), Killa

The third season of Lost Girl started with a bang—literally! The show continues to push the boundaries with its depiction of fluid sexuality and relationships. The new status quo between the light and dark fae promises greater possibilities for cross-cultural relations, and the presence of Tamsin and Vex makes the prospect even more appealing. Let's talk about the tangled, sexy character relationships and all the ways we'd like to see them play out.

Buenaventura Mag 7: What holds the gang together? Kris (krisserci5), Charlotte C. Hill

The deal was simple: a dollar a day, plus room and board, for a month. And now they've been together *how* long? What holds these seven loners together over the long haul? All pairings, all points of view. Bring story recs to share.

San Miguel A Art Show Gallery Crawl Naked Bee

Join us for a group stroll through the Art Show to talk about the art. Criticism and squee equally welcome!

4:00 pm

San Miguel B Vidding Aesthetics Franzeska Dickson

Vidders and vid watchers: let's talk vidding aesthetics. How have styles changed over time? What makes a good vid and what's just a matter of personal taste? What do you want to BURN WITH FIRE? Let's get this cage match... err... discussion going.

Santa Cruz Person of Interest: Two in the Shadows Dorinda, bren/glacis

Finch and Reese—made for each other! Sprinkle in Carter and Fusco and Zoe, oh, my! HR and Elias are starting a war, Reese is heading for the courtroom, Finch is fixing everything as fast as his fingers can type, and Bear is taking notes, probably in Dutch. What's next for the two who work to save others from the shadows? And when will they finally hook up??

Buenaventura Oh No, It's Gone: Finding Works in Old Fandoms Raine Wynd

You've just discovered a new-to-you fandom, but the show's been off the air for years. How do you find the fannish works or even more of the source? Where to start? Tips and tricks to finding more when less is available on the 'net.

Saturday

5:00 pm

San Miguel B      Privacy, Secrecy, and the Fourth Wall Calysta Rose, Charlotte C. Hill

The fourth wall between fans and The Powers That Be is shrinking day by day. Are the technologies we're using changing fannish etiquette (from invite-only mailing lists, to friends-locked journals, to all public all the time tumblr)? Should we run for the hills or embrace the change? Discuss!

Santa Cruz      Marvel Movie Universe: What's next? Who's next? Christy, Jo

The Avengers movie delivered on almost every promise made to us, and there's more waiting for us ahead. What do we know is coming and what might be on the horizon? And don't forget the mutants!

Con Suite      Back When Fandom Used Bearskins and Stone Knives (Tour of the Zine Library) Denise Raymond, Elf (Elfwreck)

Come on a guided tour of the zine library. Learn about fanzine production methods, shifts in fanzine culture and what lies ahead on the horizon for fanzines. Due to space constraints, attendance will be limited.

6:00 pm

Santa Cruz      Supernatural Cafe tartysuz, kadymae-devilc

New mythology, new characters, new ships! Share your Supernatural obsessions and recommendations.

8:00 pm

San Miguel B      Escapade Songvid Show

Featuring new and nearly new vids from a variety of fandoms, the Escapade vid show is not to be missed. Choose your viewing environment: on the big screen in San Miguel B (quiet and attentive atmosphere), or the Vid Show Annex in Buenaventura (where conversation and commentary are welcome).

Sunday

8:00 am

San Miguel B      Beach Walk

Meet for a lovely morning walk along the promenade.

8:30 am

Bayview      Sunday Morning Breakfast

Great breakfast buffet with the best view in town.

9:30 am

Bayview      Escapade Art & Charity Auction

It's fun, exciting, and sexy (and that's before the artwork)! This is your last chance to take home a lovely bit of crafts or artwork, and win those last raffle prizes.

10:30 am

San Miguel B      Vid Review

Flash all the way back to Saturday night to dissect our favorite (or not) vids from the show.

11:00 am

Santa Cruz      Wildcard Panel

There's always something that comes up at the last minute that we ought to be talking about. What is it this year? Topic to be selected at the Welcome to Escapade Panel

Buenaventura      Star Wars: Future Buzz Katbear

With Disney's acquisition of Star Wars from Lucas, there's shiny new light at the end of the tunnel to getting a new movie(s). Let's chat about what you have liked or not about the previous and current SW movies and universe and what you would like to see or not see in the next movie. What direction do you want SW to go and what role, if any, do see for George in the future?

Noon

San Miguel B      My lawn is your lawn! Jennifer aka Megan Kent

New people flood into fandom every day from little kids to drawerfic writers who thought they were all alone. How do we make fandom spaces welcoming for new people without spoiling what was there before? Or would we rather shake our canes? Let's talk about newbies, for better or for worse.

Santa Cruz      Arrow: Straight-ish to the Heart bren/glacis

Diggs is darling. Oliver is scrumptious. Tommy's a treat. Detective Lance could be quite scintillating coming up against wicked Merlyn. What's your take on the new lancer(s) in town?

Buenaventura      Writing Good Prompts Elf (elfwreck)

What to include, what to leave out, what to expect from the resulting fic, if any.

Sunday

1:00 pm

San Miguel B      Pimping in 5 Minutes or Less Delibby, Calysta Rose

Are you looking for a new show to love? Looking for a chance to share your love of a show? Come join us.

Santa Cruz      Community: Community in Season Four: How Dark Has Our Timeline Gotten Anyway? Aral, sinead

Most Community fans can agree that S3 took a turn for the dark. S4 will be underway by the time we gather for the con, without showrunner/creator Dan Harmon at the helm. How are we feeling about the new season? Does it feel like our show? How does it fit with the evolution of the characters in S1-3? Are we hoping for a revival and S5, or just that it can end with dignity?

Buenaventura      50 Shades of Crap Dail

Why is it that bad het SM former fanfiction makes a bazillion dollars and well-written m/m is still only in back alleys? Is it worth it for us to try to write that original m/m story/novel that's been eating our brain?

2:00 pm

San Miguel B      Escapade Review

This is the chance to laugh, to cry, to complain bitterly—to tell us what worked & what didn't, and what will make Escapade better for you (and others) next year.

4:00 pm

Con Suite      Dead Dog Party

Programming may be over, but the party's not. Drop by to pick up your copy of the songvid DVD, register for next year's convention, fill out a comment form, and hang out 'til your plane or ride leaves.
